It is the authorisation system for Organisations and entities.
2	When We refer to a statutory law in this document, it includes the amendments and revisions to that statutory law. It also includes the statutory law’s subsidiary legislation, unless stated otherwise.
B	Our services and how We manage Your data We may make changes to eServices and use Your information.
3	You can access Our eServices to perform the available transactions. We may make changes to Our eServices from time to time which may affect You. You will be deemed to have agreed to such changes if You continue to use Our eServices.
4	Information may be required when You use Our eServices to perform transactions. This includes personally identifiable data, for e.g., Your identity and contact information. (a) We may verify and share this information with other public agencies (refers to an Organ of State, Ministry, Government Department, or Statutory Board) and non-public agencies (refers to a person other than a public agency), unless prohibited by law. (b) We may use this information to contact You to participate in research activities like interviews, surveys, user testing, etc. This will help Us to improve Our policies, programmes, and services to serve You better. You will always be free to opt out of these activities if You prefer not to participate. (c) For Your convenience, We may also display to You data that You had previously supplied to Us or other public agencies. This will speed up the transaction and save You the trouble of repeating previous submissions. Should the data be out-of-date, please supply Us with the latest data. We will only retain the information We need to effectively deliver services to You or to enhance Your convenience in using Our eServices.
5	We will endeavour to (a) secure all electronic transmissions and (b) keep Your information safe from unauthorised use.
6	We can reject any transactions submitted by You through Our eServices.
7	Our eServices may become unavailable during system maintenance. We will endeavour to announce it before the unavailability on Our website and eServices.
C	Your responsibilities Use Our eServices responsibly. Additional terms apply to persons who have an Account with Us or who represent an Organisation (see sections C2-C4).
C1	For persons using Our eServices (including those without eServices Account)
8	You may need your Singpass to access Our eServices. You need not create a separate Account with Us for some eServices, e.g., Check work pass and application status.

9	You are responsible for all transactions using Your Singpass. If You are aware that a transaction has been performed by another person using Your Singpass or if a person used Your Singpass without Your permission, You must contact Us immediately. If You suspect that Your Singpass has been misused, You must follow the guidance available on Singpass website to secure it.
10	You must only use Our eServices' for their intended purpose. The usage must be consistent with these Terms.
11	You must not attempt to breach the security of Our eServices. This includes: (a) logging in to a server or Account for unauthorised access to information (b) probing, scanning, or testing the vulnerability of Our eServices (c) breaching the security or authentication measures of Our eServices
C2	Additional Terms - For persons transacting for an Organisation with an eService account (e.g., Administrators or Users)
12	Your Organisation must use Corppass to allow You to access Our eServices. Information related to Corppass and Singpass is available on the MOM website.
13	We will assess whether You can create an Account with Us to access Our eServices. We may not grant You access if We find You unsuitable. After We approve Your eServices account, You may transact for Your Organisation.
14	Only authorised persons can transact, retrieve, store, or send information on our eServices.
15	You must get consent from Foreign employees if You are performing transactions for them on Our eServices. You need to secure their consent in writing to perform the transactions on Our eServices. If requested by Us, you must provide Us with this consent within 3 working days.
16	When using Our eServices, make sure that any information entered is complete, accurate, true, and correct. Such information must also be consistent with any supporting documents. If You submit wrong information, take corrective action. You may need to amend and resubmit Your application and pay the application fee again.
17	You may submit documents to support transactions such as applications, issuances, or cancellations. For all pass types, You must keep the complete set of supporting documents submitted to Us. You must keep them for 3 years from the date of application. We may cancel the pass if You are unable to produce these supporting documents. You may have to bear the cost of sending the Foreign employee home.
18	If Your Organisation is an employment agency (EA), You must use your EA Account on Our eServices to transact for Your clients.
19	As an EA personnel, You must get written consent from an Employer, if You are performing transactions on their behalf. The consent must include the Employer's consent for Us to display to You the said employer's information on Our eServices. If requested by Us, You must send Us this consent within 3 working days.
C3	Additional Terms - For persons transacting for Organisations as Administrators These clauses apply to persons having Administrator roles on Our eServices

20	Administrators bear the responsibility of overseeing the persons in their Organisations who access and use Our eServices. (a) An Administrator role must be held by a person who is a business owner, director, senior employee, or someone with the authority to oversee persons in his or her Organisation who accessing and using Our eServices. (b) Subject to subparagraph (a) above, an Administrator can add employees from his or her Organisation to Our eServices, and assign them eServices roles (e.g., Administrator, User), so that they can access and use Our eServices. (c) An Administrator can also remove, or update the contact details of, such persons accessing Our eServices if they no longer represent their Organisation or if their contact details have changed. (d) Each eServices Account must always have at least one assigned Administrator to ensure regular review and monitoring of persons that access Our eServices. (e) An Administrator must update Us if there is a change in persons from his or her Organisation assigned and authorised to use Our eServices (e.g., Administrator, User). An Administrator can go to 'Manage user access' page in Our 'EP eService' to make this change. For WP Online, an Administrator can go to 'Manage User Account- Add /Amend / Terminate Administrator' to make this change.
C4	Additional Terms - For Organisations Corporations, partnerships, and other business organisations including EAs
21	We can limit the number of persons from Your Organisation who can access and use Our eServices. We can also bar any such assigned persons, if We in Our sole discretion find them unsuitable to access and use Our eServices.
22	We will send all official communications to Your Organisation's email address. You must update Us within 5 calendar days if You change Your Organisation's physical address, email address, phone number or other contact details. For EP eService, You can update these details at "Manage Organisation Profile" section. For WP Online, You should inform the Central Provident Fund Board.
23	If You intend to terminate, wind up, de-register or otherwise stop Your business operations, You must give Us written notice at least 14 calendar days before doing so. If You transfer Your business to another party or restructure Your business, You must also send Us a written notice, at least 14 calendar days before doing so. We will take 14 calendar days to effect such change. "Restructure" includes mergers, amalgamations or change in business structure such as from sole proprietorship to partnership.
D	Paying the fees and charges How you can pay the fees and charges for some transactions in the eServices
24	You must pay fees and charges on time, as required in the eServices. Examples include administrative fees for work pass transactions, levy payments, etc. You can pay by any of the following methods, unless the transaction page states otherwise: (a) General Interbank Recurring Order (GIRO); (b) Credit card (Visa/Mastercard/Amex); or (c) eNets Debit.

25	Your Organisation may choose to pay Us by GIRO. Make sure that there are enough funds in Your Organisation's GIRO-linked bank account. For transactions with GIRO payments, the fees will be included in Your GIRO bill for the following month. We make GIRO deductions on the 17th of each month. If the 17th falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or Public Holiday, We will make the deduction on the next working day.
26	If You plan to end the GIRO arrangement, You must contact Us at least 14 calendar days before Your intended end date.
27	You can view or print the GIRO bills from Our eServices. (a) For the EP eService and WP Online, this can be done on or after the 5th of every month. You must download and save all GIRO bills or payment receipts for Your record. These will only be available for 3 months from the payment date in EP eService or WP Online. We will not provide You with the monthly GIRO bills or payment receipts subsequently. (b) For the Check and Pay foreign worker levy eService, up to 15 months of levy bills will be displayed.
28	We will refund You if We cause a payment error. You can contact Us for any errors in payment.
